GUESS = (THE FACULTY MEMBER)

This week's faculty member joined the MSU faculty in 2001. Their research interests focus on policy processes, state politics, education policy, representation, electoral behavior, and quantitative methods. In the area of education policy their current projects explore schools mission statements, their thematic purposes and determinants, using text analytic techniques. In the area of electoral behavior they examine the relative importance of key psychological motives for voting.

> SUSTAINABILITY PRACTICES

A great way to live sustainably is to furnish your home with pre-loved items. I use Facebook Marketplace for nearly everything.

It's a great way to get quality items for heavily reduced prices, and to reduce demand for producing more products, while also reducing load on landfills.

HEY EVERYONE
HAPPY 2023!

If you're like me, you probably use the new year as an excuse to try out something else new too. Why not try getting out more? We've put together a Linktree for all things Greater Lansing – from food to events to volunteer opportunities, you're covered! Check it out here: <https://linktr.ee/msupls>. If you have any suggestions or a favorite that's not on the list, please let us know & I'll get on it.

MEET A PLS SCHOLAR

KELECHI AMAKOH

Q: Kelechi, How do you take care of your mental health?

“I take each day as it comes.”

Song of the Week

Title: “Dec. 31”
Artist: Mackenzie Shrieve

recommended by
Angelina Benli

“I love the warmth this song evokes, and how there's strength in rebuilding yourself!”
